

Christopher Papasian, PhD Excellence in Teaching Award

TO: UMKC School of Medicine Faculty

FROM: Dr. Rebecca R. Pauly and Dr. John W. Foxworth

We are pleased to announce the Christopher Papasian, PhD Excellence in Teaching Award.

Please take the time to nominate someone who has contributed to medical student pre-clinical education.

The guidelines for submitting a nomination are as follows:

1. Nominee must be a tenure track or nontenure track faculty member in the UMKC School of Medicine for a minimum of five years.
2. Nominee's accomplishments in medical student education should include innovative work in the support and delivery of the educational program (e.g., technological enhancements to assist medical students in the learning process).
3. Nominations must include a narrative of how this individual's teaching has impacted UMKC. Specific outcome measures such as publications, presentations, and funded grants will be considered. Anecdotes about the faculty member and ways in which he/she has influenced the education environment at UMKC should be included.
4. Each nominator may name only one individual.
5. Each nominator is encouraged to solicit additional letters of support for his/her nominee, not to exceed four (4) from others who have been influenced by or could attest to the contributions toward teaching of the nominee.
6. The nominee will be asked to submit his/her one – two page narrative describing education, research philosophy, and a CV showing publications, presentations, and grants.

Please submit your nomination no later than August 1, 2018. Nominations should be sent to: Dr. Rebecca R. Pauly, Chair, Selection Committee (E-mail: pauylr@umkc.edu).

Thank you for taking the time to nominate for this important award. Award recipients will be recognized at the Faculty Awards Ceremony on September 13.
